PROPAGATION OF SUBTROPICAL FRUIT

Email address: trainingservices@arc.agirc.za
Telephone number: +27(0)12 427 9700/9815
Fax number: +27(0)12 430 5814
Course coordinator: Mr Oscar Maphanga
Coordinator contact: +27(0)13 753 7096
Institute email: infoitsc@arc.agric.za

LOCATION: ARC-INSTITUTE FOR TROPICAL AND SUBTROPICAL CROPS, Nelspruit, RSA
SCHEDULED DATES: Upon request
COURSE FEE: Price on application
BOOKS/MANUALS: Production guidelines (Catalogue For sale)
COURSE DURATION: 2/3/5 Days (Course duration determined by level of knowledge required)

COURSE OUTLINE & DESCRIPTION

To provide training on basic/comprehensive knowledge of fruit tree propagation techniques

- Introduction to subtropical fruit tree propagation
- Characteristics of a good nursery.
- Caring of mother material
- Mycorrhizae in the nursery
- Disease and pest control
- Propagation techniques of different crops
- Business principles of a nursery

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Knowledge on propagation practices for different subtropical fruit crops

DELIVERY MODE: Presentation (Theory), Practical
WHO SHOULD ATTEND?: Entrepreneurs, Farmers, Extension officers, Students, Prospective Nurserymen
DELIVERY MODE: Presentation (Theory), Practical
ENTRY REQUIREMENTS: The ability to read and write