

DRY BEANS PRODUCTION

Email address: FourieD@arc.agric.za
Fax number: +27(0)12 430 5814
Course coordinator: Dr Deidré Fourie
Coordinator contact: +27(0)18 299 6312

LOCATION: ARC-GRAIN CROPS INSTITUTE, Potchefstroom, RSA
SCHEDULED DATES: Upon request
COURSE FEE: Request a quote Minimum 20 people
COURSE DURATION: Two (2) days
BOOKS/MANUALS: Dry Bean Production and Disease Manual

COURSE DESCRIPTION & OUTLINE

To provide basic skills and knowledge on production and disease management of dry beans

- Soil types and soil production potential
- Crop rotation and risks
- Seed quality and choice of cultivars
- Fertilization requirements
- Symptoms of over-dosage and shortages of fertiliser
- Cultivation practises
- Pest and Disease management practises

LEARNING OUTCOME

- Choosing a suitable site
- Soil preparation and Fertilization requirements
- Weed, Pest & Disease management
- Production practices of millet

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?: Extension staff, NGO's, beginner farmers, community groups, Representatives/ Employee from seed and Agro-Chemical Companies, technical personnel within the ARC and DAFF, Agricultural Colleges

DELIVERY MODE: Presentation, Practical

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS: Read and write